Dear Jean:

Thanks so much for your generosity in sharing your copy of the Glas(s)cock / Glassco Saga.

It has been unbearably hot here so I had not gotten out to make a copy for myself. We had a good shower yesterday late in the day that cooled things off so today Ken and I went to Tyler to a Quick Copy place. I knew if I sent it back without making a copy I would regret it. I also copied the Bounty Land Application so I'm returning your copy.

Now we know Robert didn't die in the Battle of Talledego so he may be Jesse's Father. As early as 1815 he was spelling his name Glasco.
Do you think he belongs to the Glasscocks in the book? It will be interesting learning the truth.

Thanks for your offer to help. You might tell me the places you have searched and what you know about the best Archives in Tenn., Al, and Ms. Have you ever seen any names of Robert Glasco's children or wife?

I will start by learning as much as I can about him. Have you checked the Mortality schedule between 1840 and 1850 to see if he lost his wife in Alabama?

Thanks again and nice to hear from you,

Sincerely,

Faye G. Boucher

Francis: Since you haven't seen the 2 books by Lawrence Glassco on the Glascocks, I'll give you a sketchy rundown: Thomas Glascock, b.1661 Farnham, Essex, ENG; d.18 Jan 1662 Lancaster Co, VA; m.Jane Juet 17 Jun 1634 London, ENG. They immigrated ca 1643 to VA. I have 4 children: Thomas, John, Rebecca & Gregory. Gregory was b. 1635 ENG, c.ca 1689 Richmond, VA. Imm.w/father 1643 VA; m.Mary Newman, daughter of Capt. Alex Newman ca 1667 in VA. Children Anne, Mary & Thomas.
 Thomas was b.1 Jun 1671 Richmond, VA; d.8 Jan 1726 Rowan Co, NC; m. Sarah Stone ca 1698 Lancaster Co, VA. She was the daughter of William Stone & Sarah (??Howard). (Does anyone have any info on the Stones?)
 Children: John, Gregory, Elizabeth, Thomas, Sarah, Peter & Frances. The son John b.14 Jan 1699, d.9 Dec 1784, m. Margaret Orear ca 1723 (daughter of John Orear & Mary Peck, I think.) John & Margaret had 8 children: Wm., Lt. Thomas, Mary, John, Susan, George, Margaret & Hezekiah.
 Son George b.2 Jul 1741, d.4 Mar 1826 m. Hannah Rector, had son Hezekiah (your line).
 My husband's line was through Hezekiah, b.22 Jun 1746, d.1 Aug 1818. He married Sally (Sarah) Stephens ca 1772. (I don't think she had parents!!!! HA! I haven't found them, anyway.)
 Hope this helps.

Lorraine---great to meet you! I will find out more about my McLeod ancestors and let you know. My Dad is very up-to-date on this. My grandmother's mother was a McLeod who married Dr. Poole, and raised a family in Leakesville.
Miss. I do know we are of the McLeods of Isle of Skve, but who or when they came over I don't know. My grandmother was Myrtis Poole who married Robert Malcolm Dickson of the North Carolina Dicksons---that branch I remember more about. They were lowland Scots and actually the Dickson that came over in the mid-1700s was from Ireland, William Henry. Thanks for the other names---let's keep in touch.

Looking for info on Betsy (unk) (my GGGGG'mother), who married Abram Perkins. He was born 1720. They had issue:
Sara (Sally) Perkins, who married Isaiah Smith of Granville, NC. Sara was also called "One-Arm Sal", as she lost her arm in a bear trap (which is still in the family) and she also was said to have attended a peace-treaty signing. I have a picture of her dtr, Sarah C. Smith, who married Lou Allen Walter Bristow, 06/18/1846. They are buried in our family graveyard in Ruth, MS. Abram Perkins transferred land to Issaiah Smith and for a few years Abram Perkins was in Fayette Co, AL...then returned to MS where he died. Our family can't find anything out about Abram Perkins or his Indian wife, Betsy and would appreciate any help. Thanks,

WAY OF LIFE — Gayle and Buck Glascox of Cedar Creek Estates tour a portion of their neighborhood Thursday in a skiff. The couple can remember seeing the river rise to 31 feet in 1963. So far it has only reached 26 feet and their home still sits a few feet above the flood water. The Pascagoula River at Graham Ferry was at 17.6 feet at 5 a.m. today and expected to crest at 18 feet some time later today. The Pascagoula River at Merrill was 25.3 feet and falling this morning. The Escatawpa River began falling Thursday.

HISTORY OF ARKANSAS.

Rock Island, Ill., where he enlisted in Company A, Ninth Illinois Cavalry, and was made chief musician and bugler of his regiment. In 1862 he was mustered out of service, by order of the war department, and was then musician for eight months on Gen. Steele's staff. In February, 1863, he came to Helena and engaged in the grocery business and this was his exclusive means of a livelihood for twenty-one years, but was a very lucrative one. His stock of queensware is very large and of an exceptionally fine quality, and as he is an honest and upright man of business, his sales are large. He has been connected with the fire department of the city since the war and for several years has been its chief. In 1888 he was elected mayor of Helena and his record as an official, as well as a business man, will bear the investigation of one and all, for not a shadow can be advanced derogatory to his reputation. He is a Royal Arch Mason, and for a number of years he has been a member of the town council and the board of health. He was married in 1867 to Miss Mary B. Nixon, by whom he has five children: Sidney H., John E., Mary B., Nelson J. and Endora C.

Bogan N. Gist is the son of Thomas Gist, and was born in South Carolina in 1852. Thomas Gist, also a native of South Carolina, dates his existence from 1816, immigrating to what is now Lee County, S. C., in 1857, where he died in 1887. He was married in South Carolina to Miss Mary Bogan, who passed away in 1865, having borne eight children, two sons and two daughters now living. Bogan N., the eldest in order of birth, received an excellent education in the schools of his native State, afterward completing his studies at a prominent military school in Kentucky. He resided with his parents until reaching his majority, and on May 3, 1878, was married to Miss Mary Blanche Heineman, born in Mississippi, and a daughter of Charles and Mildred Heineman. Mrs. Heineman is now living in Phillips County, Ark., and her husband died in Murfreesboro, Ala. Mr. Gist and wife are the parents of one child, Bogan N., Jr. They have resided on their present place since 1872, on which Mr. Gist erected a handsome and commodious home at a cost of $200,000. He owns about 640 acres of land, and with 500 acres under cultivation, located sixteen miles west of Helena. The farm is admirably adapted to the growing of hay, grain and vegetables, and presents a fine appearance in its carefully cultivated state. Mr. Gist is quite extensively engaged in stock raising, from which he receives a comfortable income. Politically he is a Democrat, and is a citizen of whom Phillips County may well be proud; honest, enterprising and a leader in any movement that suggests the present or future growth of the community.

Thomas Clark Glasscock, a planter and stock raiser of Cypress Township, was reared and educated in Alabama, his native State, also being married there in 1856 to Miss Isabella Couch, whose birth occurred in Morgan County, Ala., November 22, 1836. She was a daughter of Uriah and Elizabeth (Turney) Couch, both of Tennessee origin. In 1861 Mr. Glasscock enlisted in the Twenty-ninth Alabama Infantry, and served over three years. In 1867 he immigrated from Alabama to Tennessee, and two years later moved to Phillips County, Ark., and located on the farm on which he now lives, as superintendent, remaining until 1874, when he returned to Alabama, and in 1881 came back to this county and again took charge of the same plantation, consisting of 1,400 acres, with over 400 acres under cultivation. Mr. Glasscock was born in Blount County, Ala., August 11, 1837, and was a son of John R. and Martha (Rutherford) Glasscock, natives of Tennessee and Alabama, respectively. John R. Glasscock was born about 1822, a son of Gregory Glasscock, who was also born in Tennessee, of English descent, and moved to Alabama when John R. was a boy of eight years. He took part in numerous early Indian wars, and is still living in Cullman County, Ala. His wife was born in 1824, and died in 1887, having been the mother of twelve children, eight of whom are still living. Thomas C. Glasscock is a member of the Masonic order, holding the office of Worshipful Master of his lodge, and is a strong Democrat in politics. Himself and wife have no children of their own, but reared one child, Minnie M. (Mrs. Couch), who still resides with them.

James P. H. Graham is a native of North Carolina, but was reared in Mississippi, and received his education in the common schools of that State. At the age of twenty-two he commenced farming for himself, and in December, 1890, was married to Miss Sarah Cathey, whose birth occurred in Mississippi, on October 10, 1842. She died in January, 1872, being the mother of four children, one of whom, Elizabeth A. D., is still living. In November, 1872, Mr. Graham married Sarah E. Jarrett, born in Alabama, in August, 1851, a daughter of Freeman and Mary (McMillen) Jarrett, and a sister of Joseph F. Jarrett, whose biography appears in this work. They are parents of seven children, five living: Mary M., Josie E., Joseph W., Mittie P. and Edner L. Our subject was born in Cleveland County, N. C., on January 27, 1838. Arthur H. Graham, his father, was born in North Carolina, on September 17, 1809, and removed to Mississippi in 1839, coming from that State to this county in 1869. He was married on January 23, 1834, to Miss Elizabeth D. S. Wray, also of North Carolina, born in 1815, and a daughter of James Wray, of English descent. She died in 1844, leaving five children, two of whom survive: James P. H. and William Walter. The senior Mr. Graham was engaged in agricultural pursuits until his death, which occurred in November, 1837. He was the son of John Graham, of Irish descent, though a native of Cleveland County, N. C. James Graham came to this county with his father in 1869, and has since resided here. He was a resident of Mississippi at the time of the breaking out of the war, and enlisted in March, 1862, in Company A of the Ninth Mississippi Infantry, serving until December, 1863, when he was taken prisoner at the battle of Missionary Ridge, and carried to Rock Island, where he was confined until May 3, 1865. He was then exchanged and received his discharge at Natchez, Miss. Although captured early in the war, he participated in four great battles of the war, Shiloh, Murfreesboro, Chickamauga and Missionary Ridge. Mr. Graham now owns a fine farm of 100 acres, with 112 acres under cultivation, upon which are improvements, buildings, orchards, &c. He is a staunch Democrat, and although not an office seeker, was elected justice of the peace in 1884, which position he held for a year. He then resigned on account of other business matters requiring his attention. He is a member of the K. of H. and of the Christian Church, his wife belonging to the Baptist Church.

H. M. Grant, M. D., and ex-State senator, was born in Christian County, Ky., in May, 1829, and is one of two surviving members of a family of twelve children born to Joshua D. and Henrietta (McNeal) Grant, the former a native of North Carolina, and the latter of Virginia. Both parents were taken to Kentucky when young, and there they were married and spent the greater portion of their lives, the mother's death occurring in that State, and the father's in Northwest Arkansas, he being a farmer and merchant by occupation. Both grandfathers served in the War of 1812. Dr. Grant received the earlier part of his education in Kentucky, and completed his studies at McKendree College, Lebanon, Ill. At the age of seventeen years he began his medical studies, and favored with excellent preparatory training he was enabled to at once enter upon a successful career. In 1849, when in his twentieth year, he graduated from the Louisville Medical College, and his first practice was at La Fayette, Ky., but here he only remained a short time. In 1850 he came to Helena, Ark., which only had about 200 inhabitants at that time, rented an office, and hung out his "shingle," and is now the oldest medical practitioner in the town. His success has been very gratifying, and to say that he is a superior physician and surgeon is not detrimental to other physicians of the town and county. At the opening of the war he began drilling a corps of soldiers preparatory to entering the service, but a few days before ready to begin active duty his horse fell with him, injuring him so badly that he was insensible for several days. His right arm was severely injured, and rendered him unfit for active military duty, which has always been a source of much regret to him, as he had the requisites necessary for an excellent soldier. He rendered good service, however, in dressing the wounded at different battles, and in this capacity

HISTORY OF ARKANSAS.

Mr. Craig is a Democrat, and has held the office of school director for eight years. To him and wife were born fourteen children, twelve of whom are living: Andrew, who died in infancy; Fannie Ella, wife of John Jones; William Charles, James Alfred, Mary Elizabeth, Lucy, John, who died at the age of nine months; Rosa Lee, Eli, Van, Winston, Francis Clyne and Frances (twins), and James Adaline. In 1886 Mr. Craig bought eighty acres of land on Eight Mile Creek, which is a choice piece of bottom land, and is improved with two good houses. Forty acres are under cultivation. His son William resides on and tills this farm.

J. W. Craven, a successful planter residing near Paragould, was born in Randolph County, of the "Old North State," February 22, 1834, being the fourth of eleven children born to Andrew R. and Elizabeth W. (Garner) Craven, who were also born in that State. In 1840 the father emigrated to Georgia, and two years later to Mississippi, where he opened up a large plantation on which he resided thirteen years, moving then to Tennessee. In January, 1855, he came to Greene County, Ark., and settled near where his son now resides, on 640 acres of land, 100 acres of which he cleared and improved, and here lived until his death, March 30, 1887, at the age of sixty-five years. His wife died in Mississippi in the fall of 1845. J. W. Craven received a common education in the schools of Mississippi, and besides becoming familiar with the details of farm work, learned the blacksmith's trade, which occupation he followed for some years. He assisted in clearing the home farm, and was married in Hardeman County, Tenn., in 1853, to Miss L. M. Daniel, a native of that State, and a daughter of Ephraim and Penelope (Mundon) Daniel, who were born in North Carolina, and emigrated to Tennessee in 1840, and in 1855 to Greene County, Ark. Here the father died on his farm, in 1876, his wife's death having occurred four years earlier. After his marriage, Mr. Craven settled down to farming in Tennessee, but in 1855 bought an eighty-acre timber tract in Greene County, Ark., on which he erected a cabin, and commenced clearing and improving. He now has 120 acres, with eighty-five under cultivation, which he devotes principally to raising corn. In 1863 he enlisted in the Home Guards under Capt. Kirkendall, and in September of the same year, joined the infantry under Capt. Anderson, holding the rank of second lieutenant. In December, 1863, he was honorably discharged, but in 1864 joined the cavalry, and was in the fight at Little Rock, and several other engagements. Since the war he has been engaged in farming. He votes with the Democratic party, but is not active in politics. He has held the office of justice of the peace for about seven years, and being an active supporter of the cause of education, is now a member of the school board. He also assisted in re-organizing the county. Socially he is a member of the Agricultural Wheel, and also a member of Paragould Lodge No. 368, F. & A. M. He and wife are members of the Baptist Church, and are active workers for the cause of Christianity. Seven of their nine children are living: Andrew Nelson (died in 1863, at the age of ten years), Mary Jane (died in 1858, aged two years and six months), Julia Ann (Mrs. Morgan), Martha T. (Mrs. Gwyn), John W., Lillie C., Eliza C., Sarah Elizabeth and William L., all members of the Baptist Church. Mr. Craven can remember when there was only one public road in the county, and when Cape Girardeau was their nearest market.

J. W. Crawford. Prominent among the many esteemed and respected citizens of Paragould stands the name of the above mentioned gentleman, who was born in Orange County, N. C., June 4, 1854, and who is the son of William and Elizabeth (Howard) Crawford, both natives of North Carolina. They are still residents of that State, and the father is a farmer by occupation. Their family consists of ten living children, five sons and five daughters. J. W. Crawford was reared on the farm, in Orange County, N. C., receiving his education in the common schools, and in 1868 went to Tennessee, locating in Fayette County. He was but a boy at this time, and engaged as clerk in a store, which business he followed most of his time while in Tennessee. In 1877 he came to Arkansas, locating at Gainesville, Greene County, and sold liquors for two years. He then embarked in mercantile pursuits, which he carried on until his removal to Paragould, in 1885, and was one of the first business men of the town. Previous to this, in 1880, he married Miss Sadie Glasscock, daughter of Capt. H. W. Glasscock, and the result of this union is two children: Guy E. and Henry V. Mr. Crawford continued his mercantile business at Paragould until 1883, when he sold out, and has since been practically retired, although he turns his attention somewhat to real estate speculations. He owns a half-interest in the Gager Hotel, which is a fine brick building, and a credit to Paragould; and he is also the owner of a good farm adjoining the corporation of Paragould. No man has been more active in improving this place than has Mr. Crawford. He is a member of the Masonic fraternity.

Hon. Benjamin H. Crowley is a wealthy farmer and an eminent lawyer of Greene County, Ark., and is State Senator from the First Senatorial District of Arkansas. His birth occurred in 1836, and he is the only child born to the marriage of Samuel Crowley and Sallie Hutchins, who were born respectively in Kentucky and Tennessee. The paternal grandfather was a Georgian, who removed to Kentucky at an early day, where he met and married Miss Annie Wylie, a supposed native of that State, and there made his home, being engaged in farming and stock-raising and dealing on a very extensive scale until 1821, when he came with his family, which consisted of his wife and eight children, five boys and three girls, to what is now Greene County (then Lawrence). At that time the country was very sparsely settled, he being the only settler within a radius of many miles. He located on a tract of land consisting of 240 acres, and gave his name to a ridge of land running for more than 200 miles through Arkansas and 100 miles in Missouri. Here he erected a dwelling house, opened about fifty acres of land for cultivation, set out orchards, and became one of the thriftiest farmers and best-known men in Northeastern Arkansas. All his children settled near him, where their descendants are still residing. He died about 1842 at the age of eighty-four years, and his wife's death occurred in 1850, she never having married again after his death. Samuel Crowley, the father of our subject, was married in 1832 to Miss Sallie Hutchins, whose parents came from Tennessee to Arkansas and settled where Paragould is now situated, where the father died in 1837, having been an extensive farmer and stockman. She subsequently married a man by the name of Robert H. Halley. In his youth Benjamin H. Crowley attended the common schools and at the age of nineteen years he entered the Wallace Institute, which he attended one year. After spending several years in Greene County he removed to Scott County, where he had previously lived with his mother. On the 10th of May, 1858, he was married to Miss Elizabeth J. Crowley, a cousin, and a daughter of W. Crowley, and when the war broke out he left home and friends and the peaceful pursuit of farming to enlist in the Confederate service. He was in nearly all the battles of importance that were fought in the Southwest, and was soon promoted to the rank of lieutenant, and later was made captain of Company H, Nineteenth Infantry, and at the close of the war was commanding a company of cavalry. He was captured in Scott County after the fall of Little Rock, and was in confinement at various places for fifteen months. During this time, while at Johnson's Island, Lake Erie, he and a number of other officers formed a class and began the study of Blackstone, and after his return home he continued his legal studies until 1871, when he was admitted to the bar and, in 1874, was admitted to practice in the Federal courts, and in 1888 in the Supreme Courts of Arkansas. Immediately after the war he traveled for some time in Texas, and then returned to Arkansas and settled down to farming in Cache Township, Greene County. In 1868, when Clayton's militia were over-running the State, and when they had stationed themselves at Jonesboro and arrested a number of the best citizens of the town, Capt. Crowley raised 100 picked men in his county and went to their rescue. There was a fight at Willis' Mills and his company lost one man and had several wounded, while the militia lost several men and were driven back to Jonesboro. Afterward Capt. Crowley succeeded in efon a farm in Tennessee, and in 1858 came to Greene County, Ark., enlisting from this county, in 1861, in Company K, Fifth Arkansas Volunteers, under Col. Cross, and went into service at Columbus, Ky. He was a member of a scouting party along the Red River, and in 1862 was honorably discharged at Bowling Green, Ky. After his return home he joined Gen. Marmaduke, and was with him for some time. In 1869 he was married to Miss Angeline McWhirter, of Tennessee, a daughter of John and Matilda (Yarber) McWhirter, who were also born in that State, coming to Arkansas at a very early day, in which State they both died. After his marriage Mr. Gentry settled near Gainesville, and in 1878 bought a partly improved farm of 200 acres, but sold it some time later and went to Paragould, where he engaged in the saw-mill business (in 1881). Three years later he embarked in grist-milling, and also operated a cotton-gin, which he sold in 1887, and returned to the farm. Sixty acres of his 100-acre farm are under cultivation, and on it he raises cotton and cereals. By his wife, who died in 1883, he became the father of the following children: Joseph W., Laurettie, Oney, Gilbert W., Albert and Willis, all of whom are at home. In 1884 Mr. Gentry married his present wife, whose maiden name was Frances Drollender, of Tennessee, a daughter of William and Elizabeth (Bond) Drollender, of Tennessee, both of whom are deceased, the latter dying in Paragould in 1887. Mr. Gentry has seen a vast change in the country since his boyhood days, as it was then in a very wild and unsettled condition. He is a member of the A. F. & A. M., and was Worshipful Master of Gainesville Lodge for a number of years, and in 1887 filled the same position in Paragould Lodge No. 368. He is a member of the Agricultural Wheel, and although a Democrat, is not very active in politics. A station on the Iron Mountain Railroad, midway between Paragould and Gainesville, is called Gentry in honor of our subject.

H. W. Glasscock, mayor of Paragould and real estate dealer, was born in Randolph County, Ark., February 19, 1834, and is the son of George W. and Catherine (Gray) Glasscock, natives of Tennessee. The parents were married in their native State, and in about 1830 they emigrated to Arkansas, locating in Randolph County, and were among its very first settlers. Here the father died in 1834 and the mother three days later. They were the parents of seven children, three now living: William, Henry W., and George F. When the parents first made their home in Arkansas, the country was a wilderness, and wild animals were plentiful, the red man's face frequently being seen at the door of the log cabin. H. W. Glasscock was reared in Randolph County, Ark., until twelve years of age, when he moved to Gainesville, Greene County. He was educated principally at Gainesville and in Mississippi. In 1858 he was elected county clerk of Greene County, and served until after the war. In 1861 he enlisted in the first regiment that was organized in Greene County, and left a deputy to attend to his business. He served in the eastern army and was discharged in 1862 on account of his health. He then came home and re-enlisted in Kitchens' regiment in the cavalry, and was in command of Company E, serving until the surrender; he was on the raid through Missouri. After returning to his home he took charge of the clerk's office, and in 1868 engaged in mercantile business at Gainesville, which he continued until 1883, when he sold out and came to Paragould. Since that time he has been occupied in the real estate business. He owns about 12,000 acres of land, with some 600 under cultivation. His lands are among the best in the country, as he has been investing and buying since 1857. Mr. Glasscock was elected mayor of Paragould in April, 1888, which position he is now filling. He was married first in 1858 to Miss Amanda Conduff, by whom he had four children, two now living: H. F. and Sudie. His second marriage was to Mrs. Emily J. Williamson, by whom he has six children, four now living: John, Jennie, Etta and Albert (twins). Mr. and Mrs. Glasscock and family are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and Mr. Glasscock is a member of the Masonic fraternity and Knights of Pythias. He is one of the prominent and leading citizens of his vicinity.

GREENE COUNTY.

M. C. Gramling, who is one of the first and most successful farmers and stock raisers of Greene County, Ark., was born in Spartanburg County, S. C., November 29, 1839, and is the eldest in a family of twelve children born to the marriage of Benjamin M. and Mary (Wilson) Gramling, also natives of the "Palmetto State," who were there engaged in farming until 1858, when they came to Arkansas and settled in Greene County. Here they entered a tract of 160 acres, and began immediately to make improvements, opening about seventy-five acres of land, erecting good buildings and setting out orchards. After living on this tract for about sixteen years the father sold out and purchased 100 acres in Cache Township, which he also greatly improved. He is here living at the present time, and is in his seventy-first year. M. C. Gramling, our subject, has always been familiar with farm labor, and assisted his father until twenty-one years of age, when he became an employe of the Government in draining this section of the State. At the breaking out of the Rebellion he enlisted in Company D, Fifth Arkansas Infantry, and was assigned to the Army of the Tennessee, and was with Gen. Joe Johnston, participating in the battles of Perryville, Murfreesboro, Corinth, where he was promoted to the rank of lieutenant, and Chickamauga. In this engagement, while his company was making a charge, and he was crying to his comrades "Come on, boys," he was wounded by a bullet striking him in the cheek. He was also at Ringgold, Resaca, where he was wounded in the thigh, and Jonesboro, Ga., where he lost his left arm by the explosion of a shell on the 1st of September, 1864. He remained in the field until the close of the war, then returned to Arkansas, and in 1866 was married to Miss Mary Smith, a native of South Carolina, and a daughter of William and Elizabeth (Otts) Smith, who were also from South Carolina, and emigrated to Arkansas in 1850, settling on 160 acres of land in Greene County. They were very successful, and in time became the owners of 1,100 acres of land. The father died in September, 1878, but the mother is still living. In 1866 Mr. Gramling located at Gainesville, where he started a general store, and in the fall of the same year he was elected assessor of Greene County, for one term of two years. In the spring of this year he was appointed treasurer of the county till the election of a successor, but continued also to manage his store for three years, then moving to St. Francis Township, where he rented land, and made one crop. In 1870 he bought 240 acres of land, and since that time has continued to add to his acreage until he now possesses 560 acres of fertile land. He has made many improvements on his property, and in 1877 erected a handsome residence, and has also built good barns. Two hundred acres of his land are under cultivation, and two acres are in orchard. He gives considerable attention to stock raising, and has a full-blooded Holstein bull imported from Northern Missouri. In 1872 he was elected to the office of county sheriff, and subsequently was elected county judge, which he held two terms. He has always been active in political and school matters, and is always interested in every enterprise for the welfare of the county. He and wife are the parents of the following children: William M., who died on the 6th of August, 1879, aged eleven years, six months; James M., Alice, Jennie, Joseph F., Earl V., Jesse M., Elbert S., Van W., and Mary, who died in infancy.

George A. Gramling is classed among the successful tillers of the soil and stockmen of Cache Township, Greene County, Ark., of which he is a native, having been born in the year 1859. He is the ninth of eleven children born to Richard and Cynthia (Brannon) Gramling, whose birthplace was in South Carolina. They were married in that State, and in 1856 came to Greene County, Ark., settling on the east side of Crowley's Ridge, where they acquired a large tract of land, 200 acres of which were under cultivation. Here he erected a building, set out orchards, and made many other improvements, his attention being also largely given to the propagation of stock. He had a blacksmith's shop on his farm and made the most of the farming tools for this section. During his long residence in the county he became well known and highly respected. He died at the age of sixty-three years, in 1882. His widow is still living.

HISTORY OF ARKANSAS.

master of this place). In 1881 Miss Carrie V. Du Boise became Mrs. Dobson, and this later union resulted in the birth of one child, a son, Edwin D. Mr. Dobson is a member of Lewisville Lodge No. 24, A. F. & A. M., a member of the Magnolia Chapter No. 11, R. A. M., and of Magnolia Lodge No. 24, I. O. O. F., and also a member of Magnolia Lodge No. 81, K. of H. Mr. Dobson has been very successful in life, chiefly the result of his own industry and good management, and is a liberal contributor to and supporter of all enterprises tending to the advancement of society.

Calvin Fish has been a resident of this county for thirty-nine years, and during this time he has proved himself to be a very desirable citizen, as well as an honest and upright man. His birth occurred in Henry County, Ga., December 31, 1880, and he is the son of Russell and Eliza E. (Curry) Fish, natives of North Carolina and Georgia, respectively. When a young man, the father went to Georgia, and was there married, and shortly after the birth of his son Calvin, moved to Mississippi, thence in 1851 to Arkansas. They chose a location in Lafayette County, and here the father passed the rest of his life. He died in January, 1895, in the Indian Territory, whither he had gone to visit a sick brother. Mrs. Fish was the mother of fourteen children, eight of whom survive: Calvin, Robert M. (a farmer of Montague County, Tex.), Elizabeth (now Mrs. Range, of this township), William (a farmer of Pope County, Ark.), Sarah (now Mrs. Curley, of this township), Elizabeth (now Mrs. Graham, of Prescott), Daniel (a farmer of Montague County, Tex.), and Duncan (also of Montague County, Tex.). Calvin Fish accompanied his parents to Arkansas in 1851, and the same year entered a quarter section of land and commenced farming for himself. In 1861 he enlisted in Hudspeh's battalion of light artillery, which was formed in Tennessee, and consisted of Tennessee and Arkansas companies. His principal battles were Madrid, Shiloh (at this battle Mr. Fish was twice wounded, and still bears the scars), Murfreesboro, the engagements on the Atlanta campaign, Jonesboro, Nashville, Macon and others. Returning home in May, 1865, he resumed his farming operations, which he has very successfully conducted ever since. He has been three times married: First, on March 25, 1866, to Miss Nancy Fleming, a native of Georgia, who died leaving one son, Andrew (now a farmer of Buckner, Ark.). Afterward Mr. Fish formed a second matrimonial alliance, this time with Miss Caroline Wallace, of this county, who died December 27, —, having borne four children, three of whom are still living: Nathan (a farmer of this township), James A. and Robert A. He married his third and present wife on March 2, 1879, she being Mrs. Jane Tipton (nee Goree), widow of Joseph Tipton, of this county, and a daughter of James and Eliza (Lucas) Goree, and they have had a family of five children, all boys, four of whom are still living: Tolly (deceased), Ollie D., Jesse, Goree D., and Virees L. Both Mr. and Mrs. Fish are members of the Missionary Baptist Church, and have the confidence and esteem of all who know them. The former belongs to the County Wheel, and in politics is a staunch Democrat. He owns a fine farm of 171 acres, and in addition to this, rents about fifty acres, mostly under cultivation, which he tills, and he is classed among the substantial and well-to-do agriculturists of this county.

Capt. Richard B. Ford is one of the old settlers of Steele Township, coming to this State and locating his present farm, which was then wild land, in 1853. He was born in Madison County, Ala., a son of Richard and Elizabeth (Flowers) Ford, natives of Virginia. His father, a farmer by occupation, was born in 1778 and died in Mississippi in 1850. The mother was born in 1768, a daughter of George Flowers, and died about 1843. She was a devout Christian woman, a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. To Mr. and Mrs. Ford were born twelve children, four still living, viz.: William (a farmer of Mississippi), Henry F. (a physician of Texas), Richard B. (the subject of this sketch), and Lucinda (now Mrs. Geetaw, of Louisiana). The subject of this sketch enlisted in the late war as recruiting officer in 1861. In 1863 he helped organize a regiment known as Crawford's regiment of cavalry, and was elected captain, serving in this regiment with distinction, until the close of the war. He took part in all the principal battles on Price's raid through Missouri. May 4, 1869, he was united in marriage to Miss Frances H. Ford, a native of Kentucky, who died in 1872. Of the eleven children born to Mr. Ford and wife, but four are now living. They are William J. (a farmer of this township), Richard F. (an "old back" living with his father), Marcus H. (a farmer, also residing in this township), and Cora (widow of Mr. Parks, who keeps house for her father and brother). Mr. Ford owns 240 acres of land, sixty acres of which he has under cultivation, and is one of the well-to-do farmers of this township. In politics he is a staunch Democrat, and takes an active interest in promoting the welfare of his community. He is highly respected by all with whom he is acquainted.

born in Tennessee, February 24, 1884, a son of Lewis B. and Harriette E. (Wilson) Fort, natives of North Carolina. Lewis B. Fort was born in 1776, a son of Gerry and Elizabeth (Battle) Fort, of Irish descent, the former of whom was killed at a horse-race while a young man, leaving a small family. Lewis B. Fort, the father of our subject, moved to Hinds County, Miss., and from there to this State in 1834, settling on a wild tract of land, in what is now Old Lewisville, this county. Our subject, then a lad of fourteen, accompanied his parents to this State. They were the first settlers in the county, and the first in this portion of the State, being the only white residents from Camden to Red River. A few years after their arrival other settlers came to this neighborhood. When the county (then a part of Union County) was formed (about 1843), Mr. Fort gave the county the lot on which the court-house was built, and as he was the first settler, and one of the leading men of the county, the town was named Lewisville for him, after his given name, Lewis. At the outbreak of the war he owned about 1,200 acres of land and over seventy-five slaves. Shortly before his death, Mr. Fort lost his mind, caused by the bite of a cat, and in 1870, while deranged, killed himself with a knife. Mr. Fort was twice married; first, to the mother of our subject, who died about 1865, and Mr. Fort then married Margaret Andrews, who died in 1882, leaving no children. By the first marriage there were eight children, two of whom only are living, viz.: Milton G. (the subject of this sketch), and Harriette L. (now Mrs. Athieson, of New Lewisville). The subject of this sketch remained with his parents until he was twenty-two years of age, when he commenced to farm for himself on a portion of his father's farm. In 1861 he entered Fagen's cavalry service, Confederate army, in which he served until the close of the war, taking part in all the principal battles on the west side of the Mississippi River. In 1865 he received an honorable discharge from the Confederate service and returned to his family, who had in the meantime moved (in 1864) on to his present farm, which he had purchased before entering the army. Mr. Fort has been twice married: first, October 15, 1846, to Miss Julia Ann Reed, a native of Mississippi, who died June 10, 1861, leaving seven children, three of whom are now living, viz.: Fannie (now Mrs. Fort, of Jefferson, Tex.), Emma and Ella (twins), the former of whom is now Mrs. Evans and resides in Jefferson, Tex., and the latter is Mrs. Glasgow, whose husband is an agriculturist of this county, and owns 200 acres of land. In 1863 Mr. Fort married Florida A. Camdell, of Alabama, by whom he has had nine children; four still survive, viz.: Margaret Ann, Robert Edmond, Adelaide and Peircie, all at home. At one time Mr. Fort was the owner of 380 acres of land, but 200 of this he has given to his children, now owning 180 acres. In politics Mr. Fort is a Democrat, and has a great deal of influence throughout the county, taking an active interest in all work tending to promote the welfare of the community.

James W. Glasgow, one of the pioneers of Walker Creek Township, was born in Abbeville District, S. C., March 25, 1821, a son of Henry and Ruth (Williams) Glasgow, natives of South Carolina. Henry Glasgow was a son of John and Nellie Glasgow, natives of Scotland, born in Glasgow, where the father was one of the largest property owners of the city. He and wife emigrated to this country in 1771, locating in South Carolina, where Henry Glasgow was born in 1797. He was in the American army during the Revolutionary War. Henry Glasgow was a farmer by occupation, and came to this State in 1856, settling in Lafayette County, where he resided until his death in 1871. He was married in 1819 to Ruth Williams, a daughter of James and Ellen Williams. Her parents were natives of England and emigrated to this country before the Revolutionary War. To Mr. and Mrs. Glasgow were born five children, two of whom are still living, viz.: James W. (the subject of this sketch), and John (who is also a resident of this county, being engaged in tilling the soil in Walker Township, where he owns eighty acres of fine land). The subject of this sketch was reared in Georgia. In 1857 (one year after his father's removal to this county) he came to this place and located on the farm on which he resides at present, consisting of 450 acres of good land, with about 120 acres under cultivation. In 1864 he enlisted in the Arkansas Home Guards. Mr. Glasgow has been twice married, first to Miss Mary Ann Gilbert, a native of Georgia, who died in 1886, after bearing her husband ten children, six of whom are now living, viz.: Nancy Ann (now Mrs. Tyler, of this township), John Henry (a farmer of this township, and the postmaster of Glasgow; he owns 320 acres of land), James Buchanan (also a farmer of this township), Bettie (now Mrs. Bethany, of this county), Sarah E. (now Mrs. Bethany, of this county), and Ella C. (now Mrs. Caldwell, of this township). In 1887 Mr. Glasgow was married to Mrs. Rachel Ann Bethany, nee White, widow of James Bethany. By her previous marriage Mrs. Glasgow was the mother of two sons, who married two daughters of

HISTORY OF ARKANSAS.

Mr. Glasgow. She was born January 7, 1830, in Carroll County, Miss., a daughter of George and Emma (Leadbetter) White. Both Mr. and Mrs. Glasgow are members of the Missionary Baptist Church. Mr. Glasgow belongs to the Masonic order and the County Wheel. In politics he is independent, voting for the best interests of the county irrespective of party. He is one of the public-spirited men of the county, and is highly esteemed.

James B. Glasgow, farmer, Walker Creek Township, Lafayette County. In compiling a history of Lafayette County and its substantial citizens, the name of Mr. Glasgow should not be omitted, for although he is a young man, and has been engaged in agricultural pursuits but a short time, he is counted among the more progressive and well-to-do citizens of this section. Originally from Alabama, he was born in Gwinnett County February 25, 1856, a son of Henry and Ruth (Williams) Glasgow, natives of South Carolina. Henry Glasgow was born in 1797, a son of John and Nellie Glasgow, both born in Glasgow, Scotland, where the former's father was one of the largest property owners of the city. He and wife emigrated to this country in 1771, locating in South Carolina, and he was a soldier in the Revolutionary War. The father of our subject was a successful agriculturist, and was engaged in that occupation all his life. He came to Arkansas in 1856, when the subject of this sketch was an infant, and here he resided until his death, which occurred in 1871. By his marriage to Miss Ellen Williams, of English descent, to whom he was married in 1819, he was the father of five children, two of whom only are living. They are James W., a successful farmer of this township [see sketch], and the subject of this sketch. James B. Glasgow was reared in this county, where he also received his education. He was reared on a farm from infancy, and in choosing his occupation in life it was but natural that he should select farming. He has been engaged in farming on his present farm since 1879. October 8, 1878, he was married to Miss Ella Fort, born January 1, 1856, a daughter of Milton G. Fort, a pioneer of this county [see sketch], and this union has resulted in the birth of five children, four of whom are still living, viz.: James C., Margaret Ann, Giles Garry and Julia Lee. Mr. Glasgow now owns 240 acres of land, with about seventy acres under cultivation, and devotes his attention chiefly to the raising of cotton and corn. Politically, he is a staunch Democrat, and is a member of the County Wheel. Both he and wife are members of the Missionary Baptist Church.

Zachary T. Halton is recognized as a careful, energetic agriculturist of Lafayette County, and by his advanced ideas, progressive habits and liberal contributions to all worthy enterprises, he has gained the respect and esteem of his fellow-men. His birth occurred in Henderson County, Tenn., on February 16, 1833, and he is the son of Ezekiel and Wincy (Thomas) Halton, natives of North Carolina, the former born in 1811. The paternal grandfather, John Halton, was of Welsh descent. Ezekiel Halton, a farmer by occupation, came to Arkansas in 1841, and located on a farm in Nevada County, which he is now engaged in tilling. His wife, whose parents were David and Martha (Wilson) Thomason, departed this life in 1850, leaving three children, all of whom are still living: Zachary, Johan (now Mrs. Stagg, of Hot Springs), and William (a farmer of Ouachita County). When Zachary Halton was five years of age, his parents moved to Arkansas, and here he attained his growth, and received his education. He came to this county in 1881, and has ever since been an honored resident, and is now numbered among its leading agriculturists. He owns 180 acres of valuable land, about sixty acres being under an excellent state of cultivation. He was married in 1866, to Miss Eliza Jane Bell, and their union has been blessed with eight children, all of whom are still living: Lewis and Leonard (farmers of this township); and Lawrence, James, Emma, Robert, Shelton and Sueie (at home). Mrs. Halton was born in Coweta County, Ga., in 1843, and was a daughter of James and Lucinda Bell, both of whom were born in Georgia. She and husband are both members of the Presbyterian Church. He is an active member of the County Wheel, and in politics votes the straight Democratic ticket.

E. R. Harrel, a substantial farmer of Steel Township, Lafayette County, was born in Alabama in 1835. His father, Neil Harrel, born in Hancock County, Ga., was a soldier in Jackson's war with the Indians. He was twice married, his first wife being Miss Ann Carwile, of South Carolina. The subject of this sketch was reared on a farm, remaining with his father until 1852. He then went to Florida and engaged in various occupations, in 1855 being found at Old Lewisville, then the county seat of this county, which at that time embraced all of what is now known as Miller and Lafayette Counties. Here he worked at the carpenter's trade. In 1861 he joined Capt. Dill's company of Lafayette Guards, Confederate States Army, which was afterward consolidated with other companies, and served first in the infantry, then in the cavalry and finally in the artillery service, and was engaged principally on the east side of the river. He was in the Army of Tennessee, and served as quartermaster-sergeant in the battery. He participated in the battles of Murfreesboro, Chickamauga, and in all the various battles throughout Georgia. He was twice wounded, first at Resaca, being shot in the thigh by a minie-ball, and at Kenesaw Mountain he was slightly wounded on the head by the fragment of a shell. At Jonesboro he was captured and sent to Nashville, Tenn.; was here exchanged and returned to his command and was in the last Tennessee campaign, engaging in the battle of Nashville. He surrendered at Meridian, Miss., and immediately came home and engaged in tilling the soil. In 1858 he was wedded to Miss Ann Murphy, by whom he had five children, viz.: Martha M. (widow of Asa Drew), N. D. (resides in the village), Allen L. (deceased), Annie L. (wife of G. W. Dobson, of this place), and Lee (deceased). Mrs. Harrel died in 1872, and in 1874 Miss Ellen Steel, of this county, became Mrs. Harrel. She was a daughter of John Steel, a pioneer of this county, who served as county judge previous to the war. To Mr. and Mrs. Harrel have been born two children, Richard L. and John T. His first wife's father, E. A. Murphy, was also a pioneer of this county, and served as county judge previous to the war. He owned considerable property, and was one of the leading men of the county. Socially Mr. Harrel affiliates with the Lewisville Lodge No. 14, A. F. & A. M., and Lewisville Lodge No. 56, K. of P. Mrs. Harrel is a member of the Christian Church.

W. D. Harrison, merchant, New Lewisville, Ark. In reviewing the lives of prominent citizens of Lafayette County, the name of Mr. Harrison is justly given an enviable position, for it is difficult to find one of the present day more entitled to honorable mention, or who possesses to such an extent the esteem of his acquaintances. Born in Texas in 1850, the fourth in a family of six children (but two of whom, R. J., the eldest, residing in Texas, and our subject, survive), he is the son of L. L. and Mary (Wilson) Harrison, both born in Tennessee. They came to Texas at a very early day, settling on a farm in Hunt County, near where Greenville now is. Here the father engaged very successfully in farming and stock-raising, and here the subject of this sketch was reared, his early life being divided between farm duties, tending stock, etc., and attending the common schools of his native State. His father accumulated considerable property during his life, and although he lost a number of slaves, etc., during the war, he left a large estate to his widow and children at his death, which occurred during the late war. His widow still survives, residing on the old homestead in Hood County. The subject of this sketch remained with his parents until he had attained his majority, in 1870. He then left his native State and went to Homer, La., remaining there for eight years, following various occupations, livery business, etc. He then moved to Shongaloo, Webster Parish, La., where he engaged in the mercantile business for nine years. January 1, 1888, he came to this place, where he immediately engaged in mercantile pursuits, opening an establishment where Mr. Taylor now does business, and erected the second business house in the village, in July of the following year. Here he continued for some time, but his large and growing business demanded more commodious quarters, and he erected a magnificent two-story 30x98 foot building, in which he now does business, carrying a stock of general merchandise, drugs, farmers' supplies, wagons, etc., and does a business amounting to $50,000 annually. To cater to his large trade he employs three men, two clerks and a book-keeper, who see that the customers are well taken care of and their wants supplied. In connection with his business, Mr. Harrison is quite a large property owner, owning four private residences in the city (three of which he rents, and his own neat and commodious residence), the building in which Mr. Taylor carries on his business, and the only brick kiln in this section. Although deeply immersed in his own affairs, he does not forget the good of his town, and exerts himself greatly to induce immigration to this portion of the State, where, as Mr. Harrison, says, "any man can make more than a living if he will only exert himself a little." In 1872 Mr. Harrison was united in marriage to Miss Torbt, daughter of Hugh Torbt, of Homer, La., who died after a short wedded life of six years. In 1879 Mr. Harrison wedded Miss Fannie N., daughter of John H. Winsitt, of Homer, La. Mrs. Harrison is a devout Christian lady, a member of the Missionary Baptist Church. Mr. Harrison belongs to the A. F. & A. M., of which order he is a admitted member.

J. B. Herndon, the popular merchant of Bradley Station, was born in this county on February 9, 1860, and here he attained his growth and was schooled, received the best education that the common schools afforded. He was married September 20, 1888, to Miss Lola Velvin, who was born in Georgia in 1867. Her father, R. C. Velvin, is now living in Texas. Their marriage has been blessed

Community joins with government to add facility at Lum Cumbest Park

Community and government joined hands to meet a need at Lum Cumbest Family Park in Hurley and the result is an 800-square-foot rest room facility that will better serve large events at the park.

The project was spearheaded by Danny Glaskox, a resident of the community, who saw the need and went to the business, industrial and church communities to raise more than $10,000. The county added $4,600 and the manpower from its recreation and maintenance departments to construct the building, which also gives handicapped access in a more convenient location within the park.

District 1 Supervisor Manly Barton welcomed the addition. He said it will help better accommodate large events and increasing usage of the park.

Donors included: Chevron, Fluor Daniels, Mississippi Export Railroad, Friede Goldman, Cumbest Realty, H&H Chevron, Four Seasons Florist, Hurley Drugs, Super Sav Grocery, Hurley Hardware, Express Pharmacy, Hurley Antique Furniture, Hurley Auto Center, and donations collected from the public on Old Fashioned Day.

Churches who donated are Magnolia Springs Assembly of God, Full Life Assembly of God, Caswell Springs United Methodist, Canaan Assembly of God, Hurley United Methodist, Apostolic Temple, Tanners Chapel United Methodist. Banks are Merchants & Marine, Century and Hancock.

Several of those involved in the community project to add a restroom and storage facility at Lum Cumbest Family Park gathered Tuesday morning to view the new 800-square-foot structure. They are from left:

Danny Glaskox, a Chevron employee who initiated the project; Donna Sampson, Century Bank; Rev. Jim Fisher, Caswell Springs United Methodist Church; Jack Hamilton, county recreation department; Evelyn Green, Hancock Bank; District 1 Supervisor Manly Barton; Gayle Dethloff, Mississippi Export Railroad; Steve Renfro, Chevron, and Mark Cumbest, Cumbest Realty.
